"Yes—that is to say, I have done so to a certain extent."

"Ah, that's good!"

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainville, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Jones & Gibson Drug Store, large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Men are never so good or bad as their opinions.—Mackintosh.

"They are simply perfect," writes Robert Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the "famous little pills" for constipation and all liver ailments. Never gripe. Jones & Gibson, druggists.

"Here, my little boy," said a benevolent old gentleman to a weeping boy, "I wouldn't cry that way if I were you."

"How did you cry when you were a little boy?" asked the weeper, during a temporary session of tears.—Stray Stories.

Ogallah as She Is To-day.

Ogallah is a pretty place With people great and small, And many to this town do come Their crops of wheat to haul. I tell you we are business In this part of the town, So please forgive the writer When they speak of high renown. There's C. C. Yetter He's bound to win the day, We know of none no better That can rake the field of hay. And also C. H. Benson With mower he can rattle off the grass

For his big herd of cattle Our amiable assessor, By name of Thomas Wynn, Annually goes through the town We know the rest of him, Tom Roberts you are hard to beat For you have the best crop of wheat. Ben Mapes is always busy From morn till setting sun, He's plowed and sowed And reaped and mowed 'Till he can say well done. Thornton, the busy blacksmith, With hammer and with tong With fiery iron and furnace Can set the rights and wrongs. Hi Davidson, the merchant, With signs that never fail Can sell the best of candy Out of a wooden pail. Alvin Frogge is buying wheat, He makes the farmers hustle, And should you try to cheat him With Al you'd have a tussle. West Marquand, dealer in coal and wheat, And with the elevator Can hoist the grain to surprise The eyes of any smart spectator. Mike Richards he is bound to thrash With power and separator Can do the wonder of the world Like any incubator. Juad Yetter is a busy boy He studies occupation When school is closed To the farm he goes To spend his long vacation. Will Wynn and Herbert Benson They say are hard to match Especially when they're driving Through some good man's melon patch.

M. D. Benson day by day Goes up and down the road Can't beat him put him Where you will on raking Hay that's mowed. Kelso and Charlie Lofsted Are pitching in for fame Are putting up the buildings To hold the farmer's grain. And now Bob Samuels He has come to find repose and slumber; He'll show the folks what he can do With that car load of lumber. The railroad company tried to fence us in, But alas! they couldn't do it, Ogallah has got land enough to see Wa-Keeney through it.

Editor of the WORLD:—In your notice of last week, you spoke of a few failures in examination and said that it spoke "volumes" for Trego county.

This might be taken in two ways either that the board were too lenient or that the teacher were well prepared. Let us see, two of us have been on the board before, and I believe Miss Neuschwander will bear me out in saying that while there were eighteen failures last year and only four this, yet the grading was just as rigid and close, and if any difference more exacting.

Now, while I am not desirous of being over exacting, I do not want anyone to think that everybody can pass examination and get a certificate in Trego, or that there has been a particle of let up simply by change of administration.

There are two good reasons why they pass—one is that the questions were fair and all based on the course of study, and a second reason, the teachers of Trego have come to expect hard examinations and close grading and have been preparing for it, and a third reason, Prof. Rose has been teaching them a few points as time passes along and year by year such instructions tells, and I am thoroughly convinced that any one who can pass examination here will pass equally as well in any other county in the state. Our teachers will yield to none and will be found in the front of the procession all the time.

Yours Truly,
HUDSON HARLAN.

E. L. Worchester, foreman of the Des Moines, (Iowa) Capital, was in the city last Friday accompanied by his wife and children. He paid the WORLD a call, but we happened to be out. He told our "Foreman" that years ago he ran The Thomas County Cat, and was acquainted with Col. Tilton, founder of the WORLD.

Rev. Lee of Manhattan was not able to hold services in the Chalk school-house as he had expected on account of the death of his brother, and now the sad news comes of the death of his son who was in the services in the Philippines. This makes three deaths within two years in the home of Rev. Lee, he having buried his wife about two years ago. A host of warm friends in Wa-Keeney tender Rev. Lee their heart-felt sympathy in this his sad hour of bereavement.
